

Friends and Mates in Fifty States

North

Arctic Ocean

Greenland

Alaska (USA)

Canada

East

West

Hawaii (USA)

United States of America

Atlantic Ocean

Pacific Ocean

Mexico

Central America

South

Willie

Susie

Normie

Mickey

Exploring Ellie and Wandering Willie travel to places both warm and chilly. For Normie and Susie there's water and sand, while Meandering Mickey tours the heartland. The five boys and girls visit friends and mates named after the capital of each of the states.

Ellie

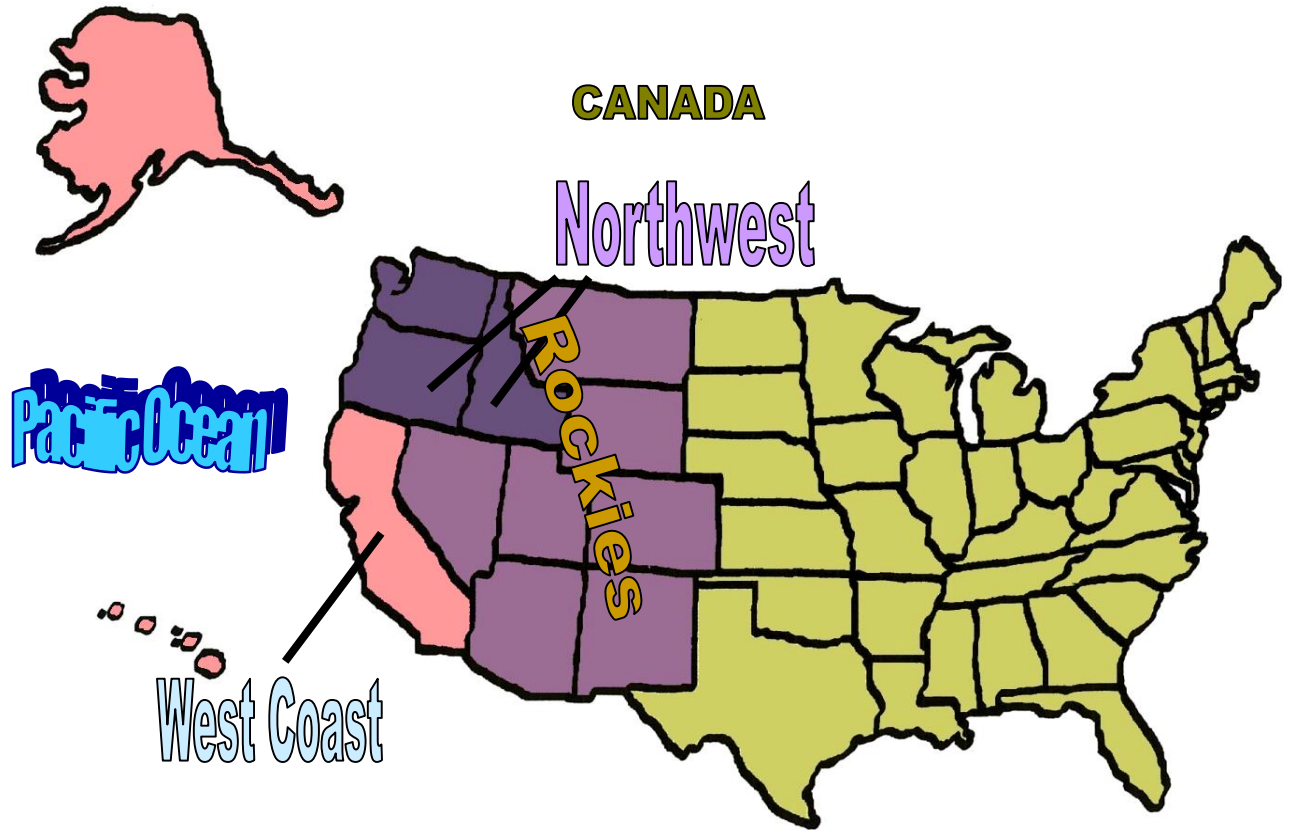

Wandering Through the West with Willie

Willie will serve as guide and host from the Rocky Mountains to the Western Coast. In Hawaii and Alaska he'll take a quick rest, and then he's off to the Pacific Northwest.

Willie

Nosing into the North with Normie

Normie has friends in the Northern Plains states and Wisconsin and Michigan, south of the Lakes. The Dakotas, Minnesota and Canada nearby bring a joyous tear to young Normie's eye.

Normie

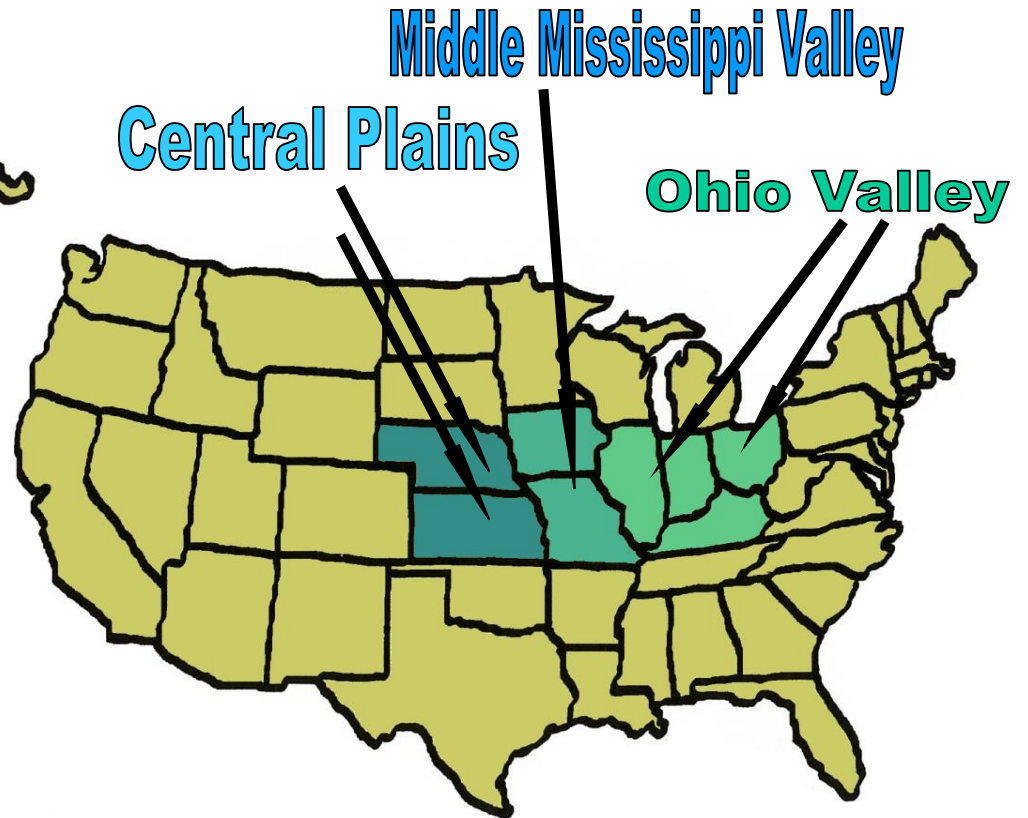

Meandering Through the Midwest with Mickey

In the Ohio Valley, Mickey starts his day.
Then toward the central plains he slowly makes his way.
He passes Illinois, Iowa, and Missouri.
Nebraska and Kansas will finish his journey.

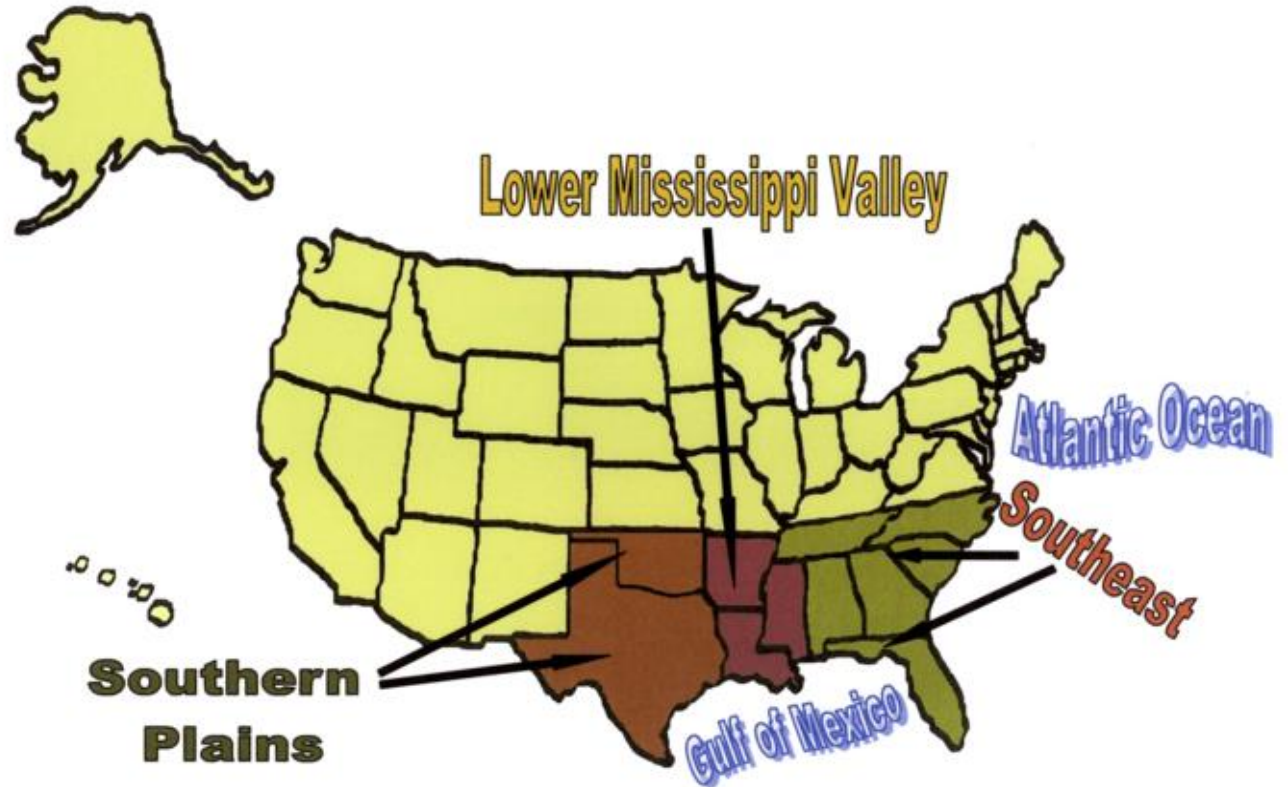

Mickey

Seeing the South with Susie

Susie takes a stroll around the Gulf of Mexico.
There are many sights to see, so many friends to know.
She starts off in the Southern Plains and travels toward the coast.
She lays herself upon a beach and happily she roasts.

Exploring the East with Ellie

In the Northeast, Ellie gets on a plane and flies to see friends in Rhode Island and Maine. Then the Mid-Atlantic is where she'll pass through to see friends in New Jersey and Maryland, too.

Ellie

Northeast

Mid-Atlantic

Washington, D.C.

Washington

With no more places to see and roam
Ellie finally makes her way home.
She meets up with Washington, the best of her mates
in the capital city of the United States.